This is a fun, family-friendly event and an impactful way to protest - invite your friends!

Join Us to Spell “RESIST!!” on the Beach – May 31st
We’re creating a human banner on the beach, spelling out the word RESIST!, with each letter represented by a different rainbow color and outlining it with a ring of people. Once everyone is in place, we’ll take aerial photographs of the banner that we’ll spread far and wide!

Make a “Get it Out”/ Hands Off Collage

For More Info

Express and share your thoughts and feelings about Trump’s destructive actions through a simple and meaningful collage art project made in community or on your own. The individual art pieces will be combined into a larger installation (inspired by the AIDS quilt) to draw attention to the widespread destruction and losses in our country.

You DO NOT need to know how to draw or be an artist to participate!

The Power of Marching

Raise visibility, media attention, public awareness and shifts public opinion

The court of public opinion is important!

Initiates important conversations and debates about critical issues

Sends a message and gives courage to decision makers

Gives courage and permission for others to join you

Protests have been the catalyst for major social and political reform- Women's suffrage, Civil Rights, Disability Rights, Vietnam War,

You feel less isolated and you build community and solidarity with like-minded people

It is FUN!!!

✓ DO...	● DON'T...
Acknowledge the need for change. Medicaid and Medicare need MORE funding, not less.	Defend systems and institutions as they are.
Call it a billionaire handout or tax break at the expense of middle-class and working people.	Call it reconciliation or a spending cut. Do not repeat their language.
Say they are cutting Medicaid and taking medical care from people who need it most.	Engage in a back-and-forth about work requirements and immigration status.
Be specific about whose medical care is being taken away: 60% of seniors in nursing homes or long-term care and nearly half of all children.	Talk about "Medicaid beneficiaries."
Tell the stories of people whose medical care and lives are at stake.	Use big, anonymous numbers like "$500 billion in cuts" that don't resonate with people.
Call this a tax cut for the wealthy at the expense of the American people.	Call it the ending of the ACA expansion or Medicaid expansion.
Talk about making the wrong budget cuts (e.g., "We should cut waste, not school lunches for children").	Announce that you're against any cutting of budgets (e.g., "all budget cuts are bad").
Talk about people who count on Medicaid - seniors, kids, rural hospitals, veterans, etc.	Talk about "Medicaid beneficiaries" or the "entitlement programs."

THE PEOPLE'S UNION USA

A budget airline serving smaller U.S. cities has launched federal deportation flights from Arizona, sparking controversy and a boycott petition.

Avelo Airlines confirmed the move, which involves using three Boeing 737-800s for charter deportation flights from Mesa Gateway Airport near Phoenix.

The airline announced the agreement with the Department of Homeland Security in April.
