

Resources: Safety on-line and off

1. Electronic Frontier Foundation (EFF) Security Self-Defense:
 - a. Protecting yourself on social networks:
<https://ssd.eff.org/en/playlist/activist-or-protester#protecting-yourself-social-networks>
 - b. Also see: Activist or Protester safety topics:
<https://ssd.eff.org/en/playlist/activist-or-protester#playlist>
2. Quick overview article: 7 ways to protect your Activism Online (directed at youth): <https://www.bitsnbytes.us.com/cyber-security/7-ways-protect-activism-online/>
3. Ragtag's security check-up tool: <https://ragtag.org/stethoscope>
(Ragtag creates software for progressive groups.)
4. Crash Override network has tools to help people who have been doxxed, or to help prevent it: <http://www.crashoverridenetwork.com/resources.html>
5. A book that is probably more in depth than most of us need: "How to be a Digital Revolutionary" by Violet Blue